

There were 26 jumps to be taken in the race, making the circuit of the enclosure three times, in full view of the spectators on the grand stand. Oysterman was favorite in the betting, selling for $89, Biddy Malone, $12, Sir Joseph vs, and Raven $6. The horses got off well together, but Biddy Malone, with Oysterman close up, took the lead over the first hurdle; then Raven passed them both, and led over a few of the leaps, when Oysterman, deprived of him of the lead, and with Raven close up, they run the circuit of the course. Oysterman took the water jump two lengths in front, with Raven ten lengths before Sir Joseph, and Biddy Malone last. Oysterman retained his lead the second time round, Raven a couple of lengths behind, but Biddy Malone changed places with Sir Joseph. All the horses took the rough portion of those congregated became engaged in a race, during which pistols, clubs, stones, bottles, glasses, &c., were freely used. Capt. Gunn and a platoon of police soon arrived, arrested half a dozen of the ringleaders, and drove the remainder into the street. Yesterday the prisoners were committed by Justice McGuire.

On Saturday afternoon and evening the First Ward Pleasure Club had a picnic at Hamilton Park. The usual amount of liquor was drunk and late in the day fights were frequent. About 11 p.m. the rough portion of those congregated became engaged in a race, during which pistols, clubs, stones, bottles, glasses, &c., were freely used. Capt. Gunn and a platoon of police soon arrived, arrested half a dozen of the ringleaders, and drove the remainder into the street. It is not known if this case will ever be tried again, as the complainant has long ago returned to his home in Canada, and will not be caught easily in this city.

he claimed that he had got the money, but did not have time to deliver it to the owner. He was convicted, however, and sent to Sing Sing for five years, but all appeal was taken, and he was released on parole. The trial was ordered. Pending this new trial, McDonald, through counsel, made application to be admitted to bail. His application was granted, and on Saturday he filed bonds on his release, before Justice Hubbard, Mr. French of the 10th Precinct, and Mr. C. C. Tamm, of the 11th Precinct. It is not known if this case will ever be tried again, as the complainant has long ago returned to his home in Canada, and will not be caught easily in this city.
